INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH COOPERATION:

Arney Einarsson has since 2005, been the representative and responsible partner on behalf of Iceland in The Cranfield Network on International Human Resource Management (Cranet):. The Network is coordinated by Cranfield School of Management and is a collaboration between over 40 universities and business schools carrying out regular international comparative survey of HRM across the world: see www.cranet.org

Arney Einarsson has since 2017 participated on behalf of Iceland in a Nordic cooperative study regarding The Future of Work. It is sponsored by the Nordic Ministerråd, funded by the Nordic Council of Ministers and managed by FAFO. The team studies how digitalization and the emergence of new forms of employment and digital platforms might influence the future of work in the Nordic countries. The project will lead up to the ILO's centenary anniversary on the Future of Work in 2019. See <https://www.faf.no/index.php/forskningstema/prosjekter/aktive-prosjekter/item/the-future-of-work-2>

Arney Einarsson has since August 2017 been involved in the research project Work Design Across Cultures: Exploring the Meaning of Good Work Around the World. The project is a collaboration between over 43 countries and is organised by the HR Division of the Academy of Management.
