

Modules available for exchange students of Frankfurt School's master programmes

Winter Semester 2013/14

1. Concentration Modules

I. Master of Finance

- Credit Risk, Default Models & Credit Derivatives
- Asset Management
- Debt Capital Markets
- Equity Capital Markets
- Micro Finance
- Project Management

II. Master in Management

- Marketing
- Risk Management
- Innovation Management
- Global Strategy and Organization

III. Master of International Business

- No modules available

2. Electives (same for all master students)

- Financial Stability
- Management of Innovation
- Private Wealth Management
- Financial Statement Analysis and Security Valuation
- Digital Marketing

Summer Semester 2014

1. Concentration Modules

I. Master of Finance

- Leadership & Intercultural Management
- Corporate Finance
- Risk Management
- Derivative Analysis
- Structured Products & Interest Rate Models
- Financial Markets & Institutions
- Financial Supervision & Banking Regulation
- Finance & Growth
- Financial Development

II. Master in Management

- Strategic Management
- Leadership & Org. Behaviour
- Organizational Design

III. Master of International Business

- Leadership & Intercultural Management
- Intercultural Economics
- International Strategy & Operations Management
- International Marketing
- Practical Ethic in International Business

2. Electives (same for all master students)

- Renewable Energy Finance
- Industry Practice
- International Marketing Strategy
- Diversity Management
- Causes & Contagion of Financial Crisis
- International Healthcare Business
- Mergers & Acquisitions (special option)
- Business Dynamics

Note: All modules offerings are subject to change. Please note that our master programmes are structured in a "3-day model". Students attend classes three days a week, namely either "Monday, Tuesday and Saturday" or "Thursday, Friday and Saturday". That means some module combinations are not possible due to potential time clashes. For further information please contact the International Office.